This was the third time that officers had responded to this apartment in less than 12 hours in reference to a disturbance call. On the previous call, Teasley left and was informed by Hunter not to return for the remainder of the night. While speaking with Hunter, she informed me that she had allowed Teasley to come back into the apartment to look for her cell phone charger. Teasley was hiding in the closet in the master bedroom when I arrived. Teasley was very loud and appeared to be under the influence of some type of impairing substance. Teasley said that she was leaving now and would go to the homeless shelter. I spoke with Hunter again and she said that she had allowed Teasley to come back into the apartment but that she would not allow her to come back in until tomorrow. Officers then cleared the call.	Society VICTIM of Loud Music/party/noise/other, at 1000 Smith Level Rd, Carrboro, NC, between 02:30, 05/13/2012 and 02:34, 05/13/2012. Reported: 05/13/2012.
